

Adult Program Trip

Edenton, NC

Monday, September 30, 2019

Do you enjoy history, beautiful historical architecture or quaint river towns? This is the trip for you. We will be leaving from the Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 7:00am.

Edenton, N.C., located just off the Albermarle Sound in North Carolina's Inner Banks, sets itself apart from the other towns in the area. With its charm, historic architecture, and enviable location on Edenton Bay, Edenton earns its nickname, "The South's Prettiest Small Town." Established in the late 17th century and incorporated in 1722, the town played a key role in North Carolina history throughout the years. It served as the state's first colonial capital until the year 1743. Edenton was also the setting of numerous significant historic events, such as Civil War battles and the famous Edenton Tea Party, a major landmark in time as it was the first political movement organized solely by women. Enjoy the day with guided tours through several of the historical homes, learning about the architecture and history of the area. The group will enjoy a box lunch at the Beverly Hall Gardens. After lunch the day is yours to enjoy as you like: tour the 1886 Roanoke River Lighthouse, visit the second oldest NC church, St. Paul's Episcopal Church; take a self-guided tour for Harriet Jacob, a fugitive slave, writer and abolitionist; or enjoy the shops as you walk through downtown historic Edenton.

There will be a short rest stop as we head back home to Raleigh. The group will arrive back in Raleigh at approximately 7:00pm
